Press Release

World Sufi Forum in India

'World Sufi Forum' was held in India from 17-20 March, 2016. Prime Minister of India Mr. Narendra Modi addressed the Forum on March 17, emphasizing in his speech that world must advance the message of Sufism that stands for principles of Islam and the highest human values. PM Modi said that Islamic civilization stands on the solid bedrock of a great religion, that the values Islam espouses of peace, diversity and equality of faith are the need of our times, and that India has a distinct Islamic heritage which can be seen in the fields of art, architecture and culture, and the spiritual and intellectual traditions of India.
